

108TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. CON. RES. 372

Expressing the sense of Congress with respect to the urgency of cessation of hostilities in the Republic of Haiti.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

FEBRUARY 26, 2004

Mr. HASTINGS of Florida submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on International Relations

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of Congress with respect to the urgency of cessation of hostilities in the Republic of Haiti.

Whereas, as the Western Hemisphere's second-oldest democracy, wrestled from the clutches of European colonialism in 1804 by African slaves, the current hostilities in the Republic of Haiti are of great concern;

Whereas a peaceful and democratic solution is needed to restore stability in Haiti;

Whereas the people of the United States eagerly support a peaceful transition to a representative government in Haiti;

Whereas ongoing political crisis in Haiti has devastated the country's economy, social fabric, and the livelihoods of its people, leaving Haitians with a ruined economy and barely functioning physical infrastructure, few resources or the basic necessities to maintain life, and an insolvent government;

Whereas immediate emergency food assistance for Haiti is urgently needed to meet the basic nutritional sustenance of the people of Haiti, especially mothers and children, and to relieve the extreme physical suffering of the people of Haiti, including their susceptibility to diseases, such as HIV/AIDS; and

Whereas concerted international efforts will be required to develop the economic and political institutions necessary to permit Haiti to sustain its population and restore economic, social, and political progress: Now, therefore, be it

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring),
